

Special Council Meeting

June 24, 2015

Meeting called to order by Mayor Harley at 5:00pm.

Present were Mayor John R. Harley, Councilman Cameron Andrews, Councilman Randall Wright, Councilman Edward Tucker, Councilman Randall Wright and City Attorney Tydings. Absent Councilman Cameron Andrews.

Employee Mid Term Bonus: Councilman Tucker publicly thanked the employees for being present and for all of their hard work. Councilman Tucker stated that sometimes words are not enough. Courtesy of the Council will have an extra $50.00 in their paycheck. Realizes this is not a lot of money, but could buy dinner and a movie. Expressed his appreciation to employees, this bonus will be $50.00 with additional money to pay for the social security/ medicare taxes. Councilman Tucker stated that he wished we (Mayor and Council) could do more for the employees, very thankful of the jobs that everyone does each day for the city. Proud to wear the City of Centerville shirts that represent Centerville. There are other cities our size that do it wrong, they should take some notes on how to do it right. Appreciate you and applaud you for your work. Thanks for being diligent and careful with taxpayer dollars and coming in under budget again this year.

Councilman Wright expressed sentiments-job well done.

Councilman Nichols also thanked the employees for a job well done.

Mayor thanked everyone and reminded everyone of the June 30, 2015 event.

Councilman Tucker reminded everyone to be careful and stated that he will wear his city shirts with pride as he attends the upcoming GMA Savannah Conference.

Mayor Harley stated that he met the new base commander today.

Councilman Nichols stated that there is a major company that are looking at areas to build a manufacturing company in the area.

Meeting adjourned at 5:06pm.
